

A Dream IS A WISH YOUR HEART MAKES ...

Jan Tennyson

In this book you will read about the heart-ache of broken dreams and an incredible journey to a transformed life.

With a father who grew up in an orphanage and a mother who spent most of her life in a mental institution, Jan Tennyson's future looked pretty bleak. She was placed in the New York Foundling Home through the foster-care system in New York City.

Nevertheless, as a child, she dreamed of becoming a dance instructor. Taking dance and piano lessons helped build her self-esteem through turbulent times. The good, the bad, and the ugly experiences of her life were the stepping-stones of what was to come.

Jan Tennyson is the Founder of Dare to Dream Children's Foundation based in Dallas, Texas, serving broken-hearted children in group homes, shelters, detention centers, and orphanages since 1987.

LOST Dreams ARE NOT FOREVER

Jan Tennyson with children in Costa Rica

Tapping into the potential of children without dreams was an innate God-given talent she had from an early age. The five red brick steps that led to the front door of her house in Bayside, Queens, was the stage on the stoop that became her very own Radio City Music Hall.

Dreaming big dreams and encouraging others to do the same led to pioneering this faith-based non-profit organization. Jan's classes in dream locations—board rooms, restaurants, luxury hotels, yachts, airline facilities and penthouses, has impacted not only a so-called lost generation, but also their families and generations to come.

You have a divine purpose and destiny. In this book you will learn insights on how to let go of the past and overcome obstacles to living a rich fulfilling life. You can eliminate the fear of stepping out of your comfort zone and take action in the direction of your dreams.

Eleanor Roosevelt said, "The future belongs only to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams." So, dream on . . .
